

Tiga, Louder Than A Bomb

This style seems wild
Wait before you treat me like a stepchild
Let me tell you why they got me on file
Cause I give you what you lack
Come right and exact
Our status is the saddest
So I care where you at, black and at home I got a call from Tony Rome
The FBI was tappin my telephone
I never live alone
I never walk alone
My posses always ready, and therre waitin in my zone
Although I live the life that of a resident
But I be knowing the scheme that of the president
Tappin my phone whose crews abused
I stand accused of doin harm
Cause Im louder that a bomb.

Come on
Im louder that a bomb
Come on

I am the rock hard trooper
To the bone the bone the bone
Full grown consider me stone
Once again and I say it for you to know
The troop is always ready, I yell Geronimo
Your CIA, you see I aint kiddin
Both King and x they got ridda both
A story untold, true, but unknown
Professor Griff knows
I aint milk toast
Of those with closed minds, dont know
Im rapid
The way that I rap it, yeah
Never serving em well, cause Im an Un-Tom
Its no secret at all
Cause Im louder than a bomb

Come on
Im louder that a bomb
Come on

Cold holdin the load
The burden breakin the mold
I aint lyin denyin cause theyre checkin my code
Am I buggin cause theyre buggin my phone for information
No tellin whos sellin out power
Builin the nation so..
Joinin the set, the point black target
Every brothers inside so least not,
You forgot, no
Takin the blame is not a waste, here taste
A bit of the song so you can never be wrong
Just a bit of advice, cause we be payin the price
Cause every brother mans life
Is like swingin the dice, right?
Here it is, once again this is
The brother to brother
The terminator the cutter

Going on and on leave alone the grown
Get is straight in 88, ah Ill troop in to demonstrate
The posse always ready 98 at 98
My posse come quick, because my posse got velocity

Tapping my phone, they never leave me alone
Im even lethal when Im unarmed
Cause Im louder than a bomb

Come on
Im louder than a bomb
Come on

Cause the d is for dangerous
You can come and get some of this
I teach and speak
So when its spoke, its no joke
The voice of choice
The place shakes with bass
Called one for the treble
The rhythm is a rebel
Heres a funky rhyme that theyre tappin on
Just thinkin Im breakin the beats
Im rappin on
CIA FBI
All they tell us is lies
And when I say it they get alarmed
Cause Im louder than a bomb

Cause Im louder than a bomb

Cause Im louder than a bomb
Come on

Cause Im louder than a bomb
