

Tiga, The Ballad Of Sexor

some say sexor was a man tight pants, black hair and a tan if so I just don't understand how he could come and go and some say sexor was a prince and he could take your love with his fingertips if so I just don't understand why he wore those kid gloves on his hands

(chorus:)
whatever I gain, whatever I lose i will stay the same, my promise to you first hand man, to take me by the hand its so easy once you understand.

some say sexor was a girl, a mischief smile to rule the world if so I just dont understnad how everything's going just as I planned and some say sexor was a dream in the mind of a million men If so I just don't understand why all my dreams come true
