

Tiger Army, As The Cold Rain Falls

As the grey sky opens my heart sings
I carry a torch as the New Year rings
And I still feel the same after all this time
A future of past on my mind

And I'll wait for you
As the cold rain falls
The Earth falls away
But my heart is true

Tonight I remember what it was like
To hear the rain's song when you were mine
Now here in this silence my heart dies
Saved by the roar of a broken sky
