

Tiger Army, Ghostfire

Unseen to the eye, but a place in your heart
It scorches from inside, just as it haunts
It is, unknown to your lover, intoxicated by strength
But when the feeling's icy flame, I know everything
Here lives where love had died, this ghost fire
Where poison flowers bloom, it sears from beyond sight
In the, graveyard of promises
It burns right through the night
Only a lover lost, burns in ghostfire
GHOSTFIRE!

Lovers burned and took their revenge
The lion sails tonight
Once consumed and turned to ash, in its cold blue light and those who can't take the pain
They extinguish the spark of life for others it comforts, companion in the night
Here lives where love has died, this ghost fire
Where poison flowers bloom, it sears from beyond sight
In the graveyard of promises
It burns right through the night
Only a lover lost, burns in ghostfire
Only a lover lost, burns in ghostfire
Only a lover lost, burns in ghostfire
GHOSTFIRE!
