

Tiger Army, Hotprowl

I prowl the streets, the city's mine
The summer night sidewalk winds
I follow it - I'm brought to you
Below your window, my heart whispers

Like a dream into your room
Like a dream - into

Here we are both in the dark
To be with you I waited so long
You turn through a restless dream
Awaken to eternal sleep

The night belongs to me
And the breath you spoke those words with belongs to me
