

Tiger Army, Moonlite Dreams

Autumn creeps in again
Red sky at night, Devil's delight
I see your face, it's haunting me
Promises withered like spring gone by

And ohh, I think about her...
My mistress is dispair, I need her
And ohh, I think about it...
You see she's always there
and I'm

Haunted by moonlite dreams
Poison tears and purple heart
Oh darling can't you see
My sanity is falling, falling apart

It's all coming down tonight
See futures pass so clearly
Which pair of eye's will do me in?
Which dagger dipped in poison

And ohh, I think about her...
My mistress is dispair, I need her
Ohh, I think about it...
You see she's always there
and I'm

Haunted by moonlite dreams
Poison tears and purple heart
Oh darling cant you see my sanity is falling apart, falling apart (I loved her)
Falling apart, falling apart (She's gone)
Falling apart, falling apart (Into the night)
