

Tiger Army, Nocturnal

You have ignored us
We've become Nocturnal Pushed out of the day into the night
We are invisible but We can see you
Night vision, don't need the light

WE CAME FROM NOWHERE
but we're not nothing
YOU BETTER BEWARE
the nocturnal in the shadows dwell

Gone... all that's come before we are the Nocturnal like creatures at the bottom of the sea
if they could rise
Our faces poison pale crawl evolution's hellish trail and wait for the night to arrive...
