Tiger Army, Nocturnal

You have ignored us We've become Nocturnal Pushed out of the day into the night We are invisible but We can see you Night vision, dont need the light

WE CAME FROM NOWHERE but we're not nothing YOU BETTER BEWARE the nocturnal in the shadows dwell

Gone... all that's come before we are the Nocturnal like creatures at the bottom of the sea if they could rise Our faces poison pale crawl evolution's hellish trail and wait for the night to arrive...
