

Tiger Lou, Last Night They Had To Carry Me Home

all things considered I feel quite alright today I don't remember where I was I don't remember who I was with I shouldn't have had that last dance I shouldn't have had that last drink and I'm sorry for whatever I did to make you leave

'cause last night they had to carry me home whoever you thought you met I sure as hell wasn't me I may not remember things but I do remember that much
