

Tiger Lou, Lowdown

took a drive down the southern coast I wanna find me something else I wanna be with someone I'm not it is time for the lowdown aahhh

this is the blood of christ and a damn fine boujolais I wanna be with somebody I'm not
aaahhhhhh

I'm the greatest lie to walk this streets and I stumble on my own feet this right here is a love affair with a bottle so sweet and fair you can't hold a good man down and I'm the greatest lie in this whole damn town I don't feel like wasting more time it's time for the lowdown
