

Tiger Lou, Oh Horatio

Oh Horatio

I met horatio five years ago outside of munich on the way to rome it was 45 degrees and i could barely breathe He waved and said hey come sit by me I was scared at first cos when he spoke it wasn't very soft he told me about the life long love of his heart had a t-shirt on that said we're all gonna die alone I still believe that's true oh i truly do

I want you to notice
I want you to care
oh horatio
oh horatio

I want you to notice
I want you to care
oh horatio
please don't go
please don't go

he was 22 unemployed with a perfect smile on his way to paris no i never asked why his english was as bad as mine but i will remember those hours for the rest of my days

I want you to notice
I want you to care
oh horatio
oh horatio

I want you to notice
I want you to care
oh horatio
please don't go
please don't go

oh horatio

..repeat and fade out
