

Tiger Lou, You Can't Say No To Me a precious kiss from your lucious lips is more than any man could stand a glimpse underneath your silver skirt is a miracle the scent of your skin your ivory skin is the thing one would kill a man in an instant to get close to but i'll wait for the day you will see you can't say no to me

one more day is a life spent that I would give anything to be the one that tears of your wings

but I'll wait for the day you will see
and everything is gonna be ok it's gonna be ok
