

'Til Tuesday, Are You Serious?

There was a lesson I never learned
Oh, I wouldn't be warned
How many looks does it take
To read your mind oh, on your face?

Are you serious? Did you think I'd fall in love?
Are you serious? What in the world are you thinking of?
Are you serious? Are you serious?
Are you serious?

Calling you up and over the phone
I hear, tell her I'm not at home
Are you afraid to see me crying,
Or is it that you're just used to lying

Are you serious? Did you think I'd fall in love?
Are you serious? What in the world are you thinking of?
Are you serious? Are you serious?
Are you serious?
