

'Til Tuesday, Lovers' Day

We're so close but I just can't Ruin everything I ever planned
I've got no room for guilt this year
I'm trying hard to keep my conscience clear
And it's clear
But he knows just what he wants today
And I could just let it happen - yeah
The more I think the worse I guess
The more I guess the worse I am

(No, no, do not stay)
There's no such thing as lover's day
(Run, run, run away)
There's no such thing as lover's day

I want to see him right up close
I want to find out everything he knows
But everything comes back to you
There's no way to betray and still be true
And it's true
But he knows just what he wants today
And I could just let it happen
The more I think the worse I guess
The more I guess the worse I am

(No, no, do not stay)
There's no such thing as lover's day
(Run, run, run away)
There's no such thing as lover's day

(No, no, do not stay)
There's no such thing as lover's day
(Run, run, run away)
There's no such thing as lover's day
