

'Til Tuesday, Sleeping And Waking

Just for the record
You ought to know that I love you
'Cause the damage that you've done
I know you still could do
So fun time is over
And I guess it's enough
Oh but just for the record
It was a little too rough

All that night when I looked for you
Without a word to say
Knowing that I was looking through
The longest night the longest day

Sleeping and waking is the hardest thing to do
When you are taking every dream I had of you
Sleeping and waking
