

Tim Christensen, Superior

Superior, I just try to be superior
But I don't need to be superior
All you need is me

Perfectionist, I'm a bit of a perfectionist
But you don't want perfection
All you want is me

I am terrified, of what I might find
If I lose control of my very soul
Better understand, that I am in command
When the fever breaks,
I scramble to cover my mistakes
I scramble to cover my mistakes

Superior, I just try to be superior,
but I don't need to be superior
All you need is me

The enemy, I treat you like my enemy
I keep my enemies close to me
All I want is you

I am terrified, of what I might find
If I lose control of my very soul
Better understand, that I am in command
When the fever breaks,
I scramble to cover my mistakes
I scramble to cover my mistakes

(Solo)

All I want is you

I am terrified, of what I might find
If I lose control of my very soul
Yeah, better understand, that I am in command
When the fever breaks,
I scramble to cover my mistakes
I scramble to cover my mistakes
