

Tim Christensen, Tonight I'm Fine

Tonight I'm fine
I changed my mind
Nothing is broken
Nothing is broken anyway
It's strange to hear you say
That love will come my way

Tonight I'll be gone
It won't be long
'till everything's broken for you now
Don't know what it is
But tonight's not made of this

And if you're gone
It won't be long
'till everything's broken
Everything's broken anyway
I changed my mind
And tonight I'm fine

And if you're gone
Goodbye my love so long
'till everything's broken
Everything's broken for me now
Don't know what I become
Or where I belong
I changed my mind
Tonight I'm fine
