

Tim Christensen, Watery Eyes

Leaning on the button
And all of a sudden you're on Hyperventilated
World wide dominated and then some
Far from satisfaction
Further from the action
Action is your only way out

Holding back your watery eyes
It's a shame I don't hear your cry
Holding back your watery eyes
For your pride

You're a dream-believer
Got a trivi-fever inside
Dragging your solution
To a revolution so blind-eyed
When you know the outside
Has to sell the inside
Inside is your only way out

Holding back your watery eyes
It's a shame I don't hear your cry
Holding back your watery eyes
For your pride

So go and find your smile, Ramona
Change your style Ramona, I
Know that time will tell you
That everything's alright

Holding back your watery eyes
It's a shame I don't hear your cry
Holding back your watery eyes
For your pride

Holding back a watery-fall
It's a shame I don't hear your call
Holding back your watery eyes
For your pride
