

Tim Finn, Grand Adventure

Grand adventure
Could be just around the corner
Grand adventure could be
Just about here

Grand adventure could be
Just around the corner
Striking out on your own
Put the key in my ignition
That for me was a big admission

Got me going when nothing could
Slapped your pain upon my wood
Like a big game hunter
Looking for his prey
Start today on a bold new venture
Grand adventure

Everything is confidential
When I'm using colourful language
Even when I space my words
I'm still chokin' on the verbs

Like a big game hunter
Looking for his prey
Something keeps me going
Faster every day
Nothing granted if nothing ventured
