

Tim Finn, I Only Want To Know

I only want to know,
Which way am I to go?
I only want to see,
What's the right path for me?
What am I here for,
If not to love you,
And let my feelings show.
I only want to know.

Black hair green eyes,
Are one and the same to me,
I dont think twice,
They wont ever let me be.
Its all beyond me,
Are you sure you want me,
Or do I have to do?

I only want to know,
Which way am I to go,
I only want to see,
What's the right path for me.
I only want to ask for the last time,
What's it gonna be?

I only want to know,
Which way am I to go?
I only want to see,
What's the right path for me?
I only want to know,

I'm going back
to where I went wrong with you.
I kissed goodbye to the best thing I ever knew,
It's all beyond,
Are you sure you want me to go?

I only want to know,
Which way am I to go?
I only want to see,
What's the right path for me?

I only want to know, I only want to know,
I only want to see, I only want to see,
I only want to know, only wanna know, only wanna know, only wanna know.
I only want to see, I only want to see,
I only want to know, I only want to know,
I only want to see, I only want to see,
