

Tim Hughes, Clinging To The Cross

My soul is weak
My heart is numb
I cannot see
But still my hope is found in You
I'll hold on tightly
You will never let me go
For Jesus, You will never fail
Jesus, You will never fail

Simply to the cross i cling
Letting go of all earthly things
Clinging to the cross
Mercy's found a way for me
Hope is here as I am free

Jesus, You are all I need
Clinging to the cross

Even darkness is as light to You
So light the way and lead me home
To that place where every tear is wiped away
For Jesus, You will never fail
Jesus, You will never fail

What a Saviour, what a story
You were crucified but now you are alive
So amazing, such a mystery
You were crucified but now you are alive!
