

Tim James, I'll Be Your Secret

I wanna be that guy who can say youre mine when were standing in the movie line I wanna pick you out of the crowd shout it out so loud so everyone hears me and I would give you the world but if you decide thats not what you like if you wanna keep this quiet then baby

I'll be your secret
if you can keep it
and ill be your friend
if you really need it
and i'll be the answer to your whys if youre willing to give me a try

sometimes I feel like tearing down these walls that keep me strapped inside I wanna take away that doubt show them what im about so they cant ignore me and I would hold you tonite but no no no no thats not what they like no they wanna keep us quiet
then baby

dont let them tell you how to be just open up your eyes and see that you belong to me... why should we care what people say why should we let them stand in our way you dont have to be afraid

jus tell me you need it and i'll be the answer to your why if youre willin to give me a try yeah yeah

shout it out so loud so everyone hears me I wanna give you the world i wanna give you the world yea yea and let me be the answers to your whys if you're willing to give me a try let me be your secret
I wanna give you the world
but if thats not what you like then I'll be your secret
