

Tim Rushlow, Crazy Life

Woke up with my tear stained pillow on the floor again
I think I had a bad dream,
Cause I think I had a hard night
Cause you know its been a crazy life

So I jump into the shower and
It feels like my whole body's cryin'
And it has been, cause I had a bad dream
I think I really had a hard night
Cause you know its been a crazy life

CHORUS:

Yeah but thats alright, I dont feel sad
I look outside, the weathers not bad
I know these times are the best I've ever had
And I think im gunna be alright
I think im guna do just fine and I think im guna okay
I think im guna make it through this crazy life
This crazy life

Saw an old lady walkin cross the street
I try to help her but she pushes me away
I think to myself she must be so scared
And I think she must be so tired
From livin' in this crazy life

(CHORUS)

I'm not tryin' to hide whats real
I know sometimes you get a raw deal
But life is short and time is cruel
But I can't help seein the glass half full, yeah

So I lay my poor tired head on the pillow again
And I pray to god maybe we all can sleep well
Maybe we can dream big
Cause you know it's guna be a crazy life

(CHORUS)
