

Time Machine, Hailing Souls

hear the voices of millions screaming souls the battle is over the angels rejoice and rest a new day now can be dawning upon the city of decay
The Army of the Dead
is fading away
into the skyline freedom is set the horizon is turning blue again the Triumph of Good the Victory of Love
open The Gate of Heaven

the Legions of Faith rise again hailing to Heaven
the Legions of Light strike again
hail to The King

prophets of death, priests of The Evil back in the shame of their burning well calling the sovereign of darkness eternal are now eating dust in Hell begging their lord feeding their greed again The Devil is dead, The Virgin is back to open The Gates of Heaven

the Legions of Faith rise again
hailing to Heaven
hail to the King of Heaven

hail to The King...
