

Time Machine, Kiss Of Fire

once again I can see your different faces
once again I can feel your evil touch

I've been fighting you for so long now I'm meeting you again I've been trying to escape your look now I'm still facing your stare your eyes, they're burning in my mind

in the past your
name was Serpent
now it's New Economy
once I used to set fire to witches
now I track you down
through the screen

your presence's showing
anywhere in the streets
starving children
the virus that kills
wars in the East

eyes of fire
burning deep
within souls enslaved to pleasure
taking souls
lost in the eyes of The Devil
burning deep
taking souls
lost in the eyes of The Devil
money glory and fame that's the promise they make

in the past your
name was Serpent
now I track you down
the virus that kills

burning deep
taking souls
burning deep
taking souls lost in the eyes of The Devil
