

Time Spent Driving, Silhouettes And Pictures

These walls breathe so softly
And cry so sweet
Whispers, silhouettes and pictures
Cry so sweet
I didn't have to hear a word
Not one moment goes unheard
I didn't have to hear a word
These hands move so slowly
Are you asleep?
Whispers, silhouettes and pictures
Cry so sweet
I know it has to be this way
But I'll still think about you
I always knew it would never be the same
But it won't be the same
Without you
