

Times Red, Not Listening

You think I'm listening to a word you're saying
But I'm not listening to a word you're saying
(No oh oh oh)

I've been standing right next to you
Even staring right at you too yeah
But there's no one home
Cause the expression that's on my face
That gave away that my mind is in another place
Is so far gone

I'm sure that what you're saying is of great importance to you
But it's kind of clear I don't give a damn
I should apologize cause I dont wanna seem rude
But I'm scared if I did you'd realized it

You think I'm listening to a word you're saying
But I'm not listening to a word you're saying
(No oh oh oh)
You think I'm listening to a word you're saying
But I'm not listening to a word you're saying
(No oh oh oh)

The lights are on but there is no one home
I'm kinda hoping that somebody calls my phone
To get me out

You said a lot but I did not hear much
Too busy thinking about what I just had for lunch
Pasta with pesto, ate it alfresco

I'm sure that what you're saying is of great importance to you
But it's kind of clear I don't give a damn
I should apologize cause I dont wanna seem rude
But I'm scared if I did you'd realized it

You think I'm listening to a word you're saying
But I'm not listening to a word you're saying
(No oh oh oh)
You think I'm listening to a word you're saying
But I'm not listening to a word you're saying
(No oh oh oh)

You think I'm listening to a word you're saying
But I'm not listening to a word you're saying
