

Tina Arena, Wasn't It Good

Wouldn't you know it
I've lost my courage
Isn't that funny?
Me, lost for words
Not that it really matters, cause I know you know
And you would have told me yourself if you could

Remember the first time, we met eachother?
You were in your world, and I was in mine
Breaking down the barriers we broke all the rules

And wasn't it good, wasn't it fine
While I took for granted you took your time
Longing for love, oh how we tried
It's over now that's understood
But wasn't it good

So long together
Two would-be lovers
Caring for flowers
That just wouldn't grow
And in all of our tomorrows
We'll have yesterdays

And wasn't it good
Wasn't it fine
While I took for granted
You took your time
Longing for love
Oh how tried
It's over now that's understood
But wasn't it good
