

Tina Cousins, Angel

Angel (x4)

Its not enough to say im beautiful
Its not enough to say i care
I was empty for so long
But then I heard your song
My jaded heart was filled with innocence forgotten with

How was I to know
that an angel will come calling for me
How was I to know
heaven was so close
I can feel you arms all around me
I can fel your love surrounding
Heaven sent an angel into my life

Its not enough to say I think of you
Its not enough to say we'll learn
How I pray that you would come
And melt me with your touch
Like the warmth of Spring after the Winter snow has fallen

How was I to know
that an angel will come calling for me
How was I to know
heaven was so close
I can feel you arms all around me
I can fel your love surrounding
Heaven sent an angel into my life

Angel, I hear you calling Angel, I feel you near
Angel, I hear you calling
Angel

I can feel your love all around me
I can feel your love surrounding
Heaven sent an angel into my life
