

Tina Dickow, Don't Think Twice

(written by Bob Dylan)

It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
Even if you don't know by now
An it aint no use to sit and wonder why, babe
It dont matter, anyhow
When your rooster crows at the break of dawn
Look out your window and Ill be gone
You're the reason Im travling on
Don't think twice, its all right

It ain't no use in turning on your light, babe
That light I never knowed
An it ain't no use in turnin on your light, babe
I'm on the dark side of the road
Still I wish there was somethin you would do or say
To try and make me change my mind and stay
We never did too much talkin anyway
So don't think twice, it's all right

It ain't no use in calling out my name, boy
Like you've never done before
It ain't no use in callin out my name, boy
I can't hear you any more
Im a-thinkin and a-wondrin all the way down the road
I once loved a man, a child I'm told
I gave him my heart but she wanted my soul
But don't think twice, its all right

Im walkin down that long, lonesome road, babe
Where I'm bound, I can't tell
But goodbyes too good a word, gal
So I'll just say fare thee well
I aint sayin you treated me unkind
You could have done better but I don't mind
You just kinda wasted my precious time
But don't think twice, its all right
