

Tina Dico, Long goodbye

Im beginning to see the signs
Calling for me from in between the lines
Im beginning to wonder how long
Before I go under?
Its a long goodbye
Its a sea too deep to dive
But I will do it on my own if I have to
I will go there all alone
Cause I must pull through
I am falling in love again
With the sky up above and the warm summer wind
I am watching it change every day
Our worlds rearrange
But its a long goodbye
Its a wall too high to climb
But I will do it on my own if I have to
I will go there all alone
Cause I must break through
I will do it on my own if I have to
I will go there all alone
Just to get to you
But its a long goodbye
Its a guard too strong to fight
Its a long goodbye
Its a sea too deep too dive...
