

Tinfed, Arrange

the closer i got
the further i want, disturbing or not,
to be away from
this irrational excuse for a futile
useless
walk around
in circles

arrange itineraries
awake in seperate cities
i'll await
plans for you to
hijack me
with my heart absent again i can't supply for your demands

the further i seem from paying your ransom
the one thing to go wrong
the last time took too long for our inconvenient
in circles

CHORUS til end....
