

Tinfed, Drop

It's a piece of paper
Like all the pieces of me
That I gave to you
It's the watering of a dry plant
I don't really know
I just see what it would do

Let me take you down
There's nothing at all
Here to break our fall
Let me take you down
If you come with me you'll see
There's nothing that will stop this drop

It's a rock that holds me between
A neutral zone
And any possible feat
It's the triumph that feels so hollow
It's the truth that I can never swallow

Let me take you down
There's nothing at all
Here to break our fall
Let me take you down
If you come with me you'll see
There's nothing that will stop this
Drop

This idea feels so
Familiar, lost me now I think
Now that I've let go
Cut from all that I've ever known

It's a confirmation
One I couldn't caress
Or even like to know
It's a complete surrender, I have
Effortlessly let everything go

Let me take you down
There's nothing at all
Here to break our fall
Let me take you down
If you come with me you'll see
There's nothing here to stop this
Let me take you down
There's nothing at all
Here to break our fall
Let me take you down
If you come with me you'll see
There's nothing that will stop this drop
Stop this drop
Stop this drop
Stop this drop
