

Tinfed, Halo

i won't forget
i have to now
disregard it all somehow i notice how
you came prepared
you bring yourself
i have nothing

i wear a halo
i wear this halo

this circle of distress
i know you don't care about
i have regrets
this circle of distress
my decisions have come full circle

question aside
your fuse is set
to put it out
i burn myself
i recognize how
you will win
you bring yourself
i have nothing
