

Tiziano Ferro & Kelly Rowland, Breathe Gentle

I want to give you all of me the underneath
Want you to show me imperfection is actually love I tho
Never let me go when love goes faster
I will be gentle

See, photographs have only two dimensions
But love defies all logic in a picture
Above all that is physical I'm falling
Falling uncontrollably it terrifies me

So if my compass, it fails me
And I feel I'm walking blind
Don't say goodbye
Don't let me hide
Oh please don't let me spiral
Tortured by you, oh, sweet torture
I am a pirate - love my fortune
The walls have fallen now
The key is yours to turn I'm breathing

Breathe gentle, Be gentle
Don't leave me behind cause love goes faster
Breathe gentle, Be gentle
Never let me go when love goes faster
I will be gentle

Every time I run somehow love is faster
Without your loneliness is everlasting
I still feel you but I hear you - loudly
Screaming please wait for me
Cause I don't want to hurt you
And I don't want to loose this love this time

Se cerco lo vedo
l'amore va veloce e tu stai indietro
Se cerchi mi vedi Il bene piu segreto sfugge all'uomo che non guarda avanti mai
