TLC, I Do

Ha ha (woo)
Can't nobody tell me what I can
'cause I be lovin' my man rediculously
Well I should ashame
Can't nobody tell me what I can (what what huh huh ha)
Can't nobody tell me what I can
'cause I be lovin' my man rediculously
Well I should ashame
Can't nobody tell me what I can (what what huh huh yea)

No can't nobody ever say I don't love my man
Who are you to justify what I can and can't Gonna make him love me even more
I don't give him more love than I did before

Chorus:
And I do
Give him the love that he wants
And I do
Give him the love that he needs
And I do
Give him the love that no girl in this world
Could ever touch
And I do

Won't nobody ever share the bond we had
Who are you to manipulate the trust in my man
Gonna show the world what we're made of
Wrapped in his arms he can't get enough
Oh suki suki now

Chorus

Chorus

You ain't never heard a cop like that
Be tryin' to hurl me out of my relationship nonstop
Time to get the po po's
Would you wanna hit me with
I'm like the driest curls you ever dropped
Possibly l-a-d's these days just don't be givin' a kuff
When you thinkin' that you love your man
It's when he tap you on your shoulder sayin'
Baby you ain't givin' me love

Unh you ain't never heard the 9 degrees
They my degrees on lovin' his philosophies
Unity the cornerstone that forms the one
Two ways to trust either all or none
Join honor and respect and form three laws
That hurtle four walls that define the first five of all
Harmony number six takes commitment
Seventh level is peace makes confidence
Balance like a figure eight joined at the hip
Infinity ninth reign never endin' trip
Don't just focus on what your eyes can see
Think clear believe give and receive

I do
Give him the love that he wants
I do
Give him the love that he needs
I do
Give him the love that he wants
I do
Give him the love that he needs
