

To/Die/For, Endlessly

Life, like a poison in me
Destroyed my innocence and dreams
I've been told life is the gift
Oh, that gift makes me sick!
Smiling faces, those happy ones
I feel nothing
I'm totally numb
But in the silence of the night-time with you
I can feel momentary warmth
You are too much for me to lose
Endlessly I love you
My blood still runs just because of you
You are too much for me to lose
Endlessly I love you
You're my shine
You're my rain
When comes the day of my destiny
Without you I won't leave
You're the shining light in the middle of the dark
You're the rain in my withered heart
