

To/Die/For, The Unknown II

So much has changed since the last time we met
Dreams turned to ashes in the bonfire of regret
The bringer of misfortune the other one inside me
Has finally taken over the one with sanity
Nothing else but trouble nothing left to gain
All I want a painless end to conclude this endless pain
Tomorrow the unknown awakens me from dreaming
Tells me there's no smile that really has a meaning
Tomorrow the unknown awakens me from dreaming
Tells me there's no smile that really has a meaning
Dreams turned to ashes in the bonfire of regret
Nothing else but trouble nothing left to gain
All I want a painless end to conclude this endless pain
