

To-Mera, Dreadful Angel

She's not to be seen today
Silent in me, doesn't scream
But there's a noise
That's she
Just careful once again
While you're with me
She's brave as you leave
Please stay
Don't go, you love me
Shield me
Save me
Love me bravely
From the soul's core she descends
Screamingly blames, feverish madness
She works as poison in me
And falls asleep
Oh... so rarely
She lives inside and out
And when the moonlit night is white
She's delving into my mother's grave
"You gave birth and died!"
She looks at me sometimes
Tears the days away from my calendar
It's up to her forever after, ever
How far and where... forever, never...
You were sleeping when she arrived
I stood naked in the night
Strange fragrance drifted
Cold breath touched my ears
No one was here to save me from tears
Flay yourself
Don't be defended by your skin
You are only raw meat, naked nerves
Flay yourself
Foolish are all the ones who pride their skin
The lying jail, raw meat of sins
