Toad The Wet Sprocket, Nothing Is Alone

Something rushes over me And I find myself standing here Lift my eyes up to the sky And offer a silent prayer

Sometimes all the shouting stops And the restlessness loses hold And I cry out to everything That nothing is alone

If the winter wont turn me Then the summer cant burn me And the rain will never Fall upon a restless soul Nothing is alone