Toby Lightman, I'd Be Lost

Take care of me now, for I can't hold up my head Could you save me somehow, form all the things I've said

Oh don't you ever go away, for I'd be lost out there Oh I need you here to stay, cause I'd be lost..

If I can't unfold myself, I'm gonna fall apart at the seams Boy cause I can't help myself when I don't know what I need
