

Tocotronic, Some Good Advice

Today or tomorrow
It doesn't matter when
But there can be no doubt
That every single day again
At the appropriate hour
Some very good advice
Mostly fresh and polite
Will be cooked up and dished up
And we will not be spared
This generous gift
Because we never get that far

They only want the best
The best for our wellbeing
Therefore the situation
Politely expressed
Is to a high degree complex
And we start to understand
That every single day again
We need some very good advice
To tell us just exactly how
We can perhaps in days to come
Keep ourselves far away
From exactly such advice
