

Today Is The Day, Possession

I could take your life Full on genocide Take me for a ride I'll pay you ride It's all in my sight Want me fired Smash my face on glass I can't resist Tearing down and fking you Time will show you who I am Here lies the guy with the really big mouth too bad I had to shut it I hated to have to stomp that motherfker but he had it comin' You got it comin' That's right you heard what I said Everybody gets theirs in the end
