

Todd Agnew, Lay It Down

Jesus died for our sins
His blood washed away these stains
He died to give you freedom
So, why do you still wear those chains, chains, chains, chains

Lay your heavy burdens down, down
Lay your heavy burdens down
Lay your heavy burdens down, down
Lay your heavy burdens down, down, down, down, down

Jesus died to give us life
A little joy in the midst of pain
He paid your debt in full and you are not guilty
So, why do you still wear those chains, chains, chains, chains

If I lay down, You set me free
