

Todd Rundgren, Cool Fire

I remember, but I don't remember
I was captured, I was hypnotized
Look away from the cool fire
Look away, you could burn your eyes

Take it easy, 'cause it's much too easy
To surrender, to be drawn inside
Look away from the cool fire
Look away 'cause you might go blind
Look away from the cool fire

Look away, look away
It's satan who is calling
Look away, look away
Listen to my warning

Look away, look away
From the light of the cool fire

All my fortunes, all my strength and power
Taken from me before I realized
Look away from the cool fire
Look away 'cause you might go blind
Look away from the cool fire

Look away, look away
Hear me calling brothers
Look away, look away
Listen to me sister
Look away, look away
From the light of the cool fire
