

Token, Love Triangle

This triangle has to untangle
Got to let it go
This triangle is too much to handle
Got to let it go

We talking love triangles
No bueno, I'm bilingual
Maybe I should try single
Just until the time pass
Will this other guy last?
"Course he will" My ass
I had a fragile heart
She made me break down, like glass
Letting go, I try fast
Love intersection, bypass
This is not surgery
I know you niggas heard of me
This girl killing me
Hopefully third-degree
Never planned out
In the car getting rides to your house
Just to watch movies on your couch
Hawaii 5-0 like your favorite couch
Or was it Pretty Little Liars
You're a pretty little liar
In my heart I got fire
That boy getting tired
Of these same old games
We've been back and forth
In the same old lane
She's making me insane
Blunt to my brain
Heal my migraine
When will things change?
Damn

Eventually you'll see
Eventually you'll see
Eventually you'll see
That I'm the motherfucking realest
And I swear that I'mma own this
And all you motherfuckers know this
This is the Arcade of Dreams
Shout out to my team
And you are now rockin' with a [?] Token
You are now rockin' with a [?] Token

You with him now
Hopefully I'll find a way
I'mma have to stay away
I will just isolate
I'm still there though
Our love is isosceles
Even when you're with him
Far away, you'll find me- connected
Hopefully you'll know you'll always be protected
Never neglected, always respected
If he disrespects ya, I'll come correct him
Till the ref step in
Blowing whistles
Records he official
McDonalds, Mcgriddle
Girl, you love my foreplay
You're still with him, though

You can have it your way
Let's have it my way
Let's have him hit the high-way
Kush up in my blunt
[?] from the sky today
You came back once, now it's a probably
I really don't see
Why you had to leave
I always made you cheese
You're meant to be with me

Eventually you'll see
That I'm the motherfucking realest

Focused on you now
I don't need Adderall
Even at the triangle
Making equilaterals
But when you do that
There will be collateral
He don't really love you
It's opinionated, not factual
My shit be factual
Without you, I am crazy
This man got me lady
Gotta have my babies
Do I just let it?
Walk away, regret it?
Text to my phone saying "it's over, accept it"
Damn

And the way that ...
How she gon' do this?
Make me feel so useless
I'm just so useless, useless
Useless, she make em feel so useless
