

Token, Threat

Token is a total mind fuck

A youngin in this game shouldn't be performing in night clubs

A youngin in this game shouldn't be constructing the thoughts he does

A youngin in this game shouldn't be this better than all of us

They don't wanna book me for a set

They just want me to take the role of a rookie, but instead

I kept on grinding and each day took me another step

And now all those mother fuckers just look at me like a threat

And I am, God dammit I am, listen and like it

Spit like a hybrid of a militant violent lyrical tyrant mixed with Goliath since I'm a giant think like a ps

I make English my bitch in the booth

Literacy's literally limiting to a living listening linguist licking the lips of the truth

And if I put on a mask, didn't show who I was, I'd be an artist you strive to be similar to

But I'm a

T

Taking over getting more popular lately

H

Horrified when you see it so you go and blame me

R

Reality proving you're just mad that you're ain't me

E, A, T

Yea, I know why you hate me, I'm a threat

Threatening your career with my mental

You're just mad 'cause you're afraid of my potential

I got a whole crew behind me and you look weak

'Cause you're scared and you should be

I show and I prove that I'm doper than you with the flow that I do and the quotables too

Every moment I'm choosing to go in the booth I'm patrolling the truth and opponents like you will go

And they're totally confused being older assuming that Token is new

Yea but Token been doing this longer than you

Every clone I produce will get broken in two

'Cause I am the only, the centerpiece

No one's ahead of me

Grow exponentially

Foes and the enemies

Frozen with jealousy

Overdose from the potent melodies

Like dope, heroin,

Coke, LSD,

Promethazine

Don't step to me

Your pedigree's

Slow you know I blow your dome, Jon Kennedy

See, I'm puppeteer you're the puppet

It's my plan to petrify I piss off pears till they plummet

You'll hear that I'm buzzing the years to be coming it's clear I ain't fronting

I'm from Salem, MA where we're weird and we love it

I am Mass's mastermind

I out rap every platinum rapper signed to pass the time

You're mad but mad inclined

So for this year's Halloween I'ma wear the Token shirt and really catch some eyes

I'm a...
