Tokio Hotel, Automatic

To automatically
You're like 'ne machine
Your heart beats no more for me

To automatically
Touch me
Your hands
Can feel everything, not just you

To automatically
Your Voice - Electrical
Where are you, when she speaks? /

To automatically
As you say, I'm important to you
who programmed you?

Chorus:

When you laugh
Do not you laugh
When you cry
Are you crying not
If you feel
Do you feel anything

Because you're without love
How to automatically

I race through the streets
And do not lead to you
How to automatically
Follow me at your shadow
And cold to reach me

You're like Remotely Static and Mechanical

To automatically
Your look so empty
I can no longer
Everything about you
As rehearsed
You stand before me so automatically
You're like 'ne machine
Your heart beats no more for me

To automatically
Touch me
Your hands
Can feel everything, not just you

To automatically
Your Voice - Electrical
Where are you, when she speaks? /

To automatically
As you say, I'm important to you
