

Tokio Hotel, Ready, set, Go

We were running through the town
Our senses had been drowned
Tokio A place we hadn't been before
We learned to live and then
Hotel Our freedom came to an end
We have to break down this wall
Ready
Too young to live a lie
Look into my eyes
Ready, set, go its time to run
Set The sky is changing we are warned (?)
Together we can make it while the world is crashing down
Go Don't you turn around
We are looking back again
Our loneliness and pain
Songtexte Never been so wide away
Breathe slowly in and out
(?)
I can see the morning break
Songtext
