

Tokio Hotel, Stormy Weather

The end of a zone, undetected
I know some ??? names
I see people cry their goodbyes
Into the mad at the skies

I can't breathe in, can't breathe out
'Cause the air is fading
We can't breathe in, can't breathe out
We are suffocating
Our frozen hearts are burning out into eternity
This life is bitter sweet we're giving into automatically
You're with the flow, just let go
I'll meet you where we don't know
It's coming up, coming up everywhere

It is a STORMY WEATHER, it is a STORMY WEATHER
It is a STORMY WEATHER, it is a STORMY WEATHER
It is a STORMY WEATHER, weather, weather
STORMY WEATHER
It is a STORMY WEATHER, weather, weather
STORMY WEATHER
And I'm the only searching for you

Remember the sun, feel the heat
The end and how it began
One more wish, one more stop
One last touch before we hide and run

I can't breathe in, can't breathe out
'Cause the air is fading
We can't breathe in, can't breathe out
We are suffocating
Our frozen hearts are burning out into eternity
This life is bitter sweet we're giving into automatically
So you ??? I wake up ready to enter the light
It's taking out, taking out anywhere

It is a STORMY WEATHER, it is a STORMY WEATHER
It is a STORMY WEATHER, it is a STORMY WEATHER
It is a STORMY WEATHER, weather, weather
STORMY WEATHER
It is a STORMY WEATHER, weather, weather
STORMY WEATHER
And I'm the only searching for you

It's coming up everywhere
It's taking us anywhere
It's coming up everywhere
It's taking us anywhere

It is a STORMY WEATHER, weather, weather
STORMY WEATHER
And I'm the only searching for you
